“ I met Preston through my brother. I came here from a terrible situation from Hot Springs and Preston would come just to check to see how I was doing and sit and talk to me for hours sometimes. We became good friends and soon became a couple. He was my best friend. We weren't sure how to make a relationship work but we learned together. He was my everything. I love and miss you terribly. RIP my love and save me a spot next to you up there. The hardest part of life now is learning to live without you.
