“ Jackie & family

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I just found out today. My heart just breaks for you and your children and what you must be going through. You have such a loving family that I know will be there for you...always. Lean into God and on your family. You have a strong foundation Jackie that has prepared you for this moment in your life. Trust in God to lead the way, your family depends on it now more than ever. I love you like my little brother and will be praying for you and your family.

“ *To The Entire Family:
In Christ there is joy to know beyond sorrow and brokenness mercy and truth are kissed with redemption and grace,... our hope in the gateway to life eternal. Mortality releases its hold on the inner spirit so that it might conform to its original purpose and design; a pure expression unto the Glory of God.
Your inheritance is rich in what Christ so freely gives____ His Peace. His Grace.
Amen!*

“Ginger was one of a kind and I will always keep her laughter in my heart. Jackie, I won't even try to tell you I know what you are going through is hard; I can't even begin to imagine the emptiness you are experiencing. But know that God is with you and yours and will see you through this too. I am praying for the Comforter to be with you all at this time, He is your strenght. I loved Ginger and we will all miss her.
