“ there are no words that truly make this to ever be ok. Time will show you how to deal with your heart and to continue to love and be loved by others. Raylynn touched you in ways that we think no one ever could. She will remain forever in your hearts and bring you smiles once again. Prayers Lifted for all of you. With much Love at this sad time, Vicky

“ I send my deepest condolences to Clifford and family. I pray god gives you the strength you need at this time. We will never understand why God took little RayRay home so early , but hope you find strength in knowing she is in heaven looking down on you and she will forever know the love you gave her and forever be in your heart. God bless you all and I am truely sorry for your loss.
