

Reeva M. Clark

August 11, 1941 - November 15, 2024

Reeva M. Clark, 83, of Springdale, passed away Friday, November 15, 2024, in Springdale. She was born August 11, 1941, in Berryville, Arkansas, to James Harvey Clark and Delma Bird Armes Clark.

Reeva was devoted to her family and her church family at Phillips Chapel Freewill Baptist Church. She enjoyed playing the piano and singing gospel music. She began working at SWEPCO in Springdale in 1959, and her career there spanned 40 years.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers, Melvin Clark, Millard Clark, and Orvil Clark.

Survivors include her sister and brother-in-law, Myrtle and Charles Davenport, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service will be Saturday, November 23, 2024, at 2:30 p.m. at Phillips Chapel Freewill Baptist Church in Springdale, with Pastor Jason Scott and Pastor Ben Gibson officiating. Visitation will be thirty minutes prior to the service, beginning at 2:00 p.m. Burial will follow in Friendship Cemetery.

“ I graduated from SHS in 1959 with Reeva, and I was glad to visit with her at our most recent class reunion. She was always soft-spoken and kind. After I married and her parents moved next door to my parents, and they were always supportive.

“ I have known Reeva since 1970 when I went to work for Swepeco Springdale office. She was certainly one of a kind. I never heard her say anything bad about anyone. Huston and I loved to play tricks on her but she always kept a smile on her face. Even though I haven't seen her in years I will always have fond memories of all the employees at the Springdale office.

“ A true friend and a faithful servant of God. I have been in church with Reeva since 1955 and she was the most faithful member and always willing to help in any capacity. If the church doors were open Reeva was there. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her. I send my love and prayers to her family.
