“ Aunt Kathy and family, I am very sorry for all you have lost and I send to you my deepest condolences. Grandma told us all so many stories and showed us the beautiful clock you made for her and we are amazed on how great of a person you were. I just wish we all could of had more time with you. Again, my deepest condolences go out to Aunt Kathy and the rest of the family.

“ Uncle Rex,
I wish I knew you better but I have heard so many stories and seen so many pictures I feel like I've known you my whole life. I love you and you will be greatly missed we can all be comforted though knowing that you are now with our father and finally home.
