

Rick Anderson

February 9, 2013

Ricky Amherst Anderson was born in Joplin, Missouri to Doris Dean (Graue) and James Anderson on November 13, 1946. He lived most of his life in Springdale and Fayetteville; he died in Springdale on February 10, 2013 at the age of 66. He is survived by his brother, Rodney Michael Anderson, of Bentonville as well as many other family members and good friends.

Rick lived in and attended school in Texas through his early teens. When he moved to Arkansas, Rick was nicknamed "Tex" by his friends. He graduated from Springdale High School in 1966, and he attended the University of Arkansas. He was a talented builder and carpenter. He enjoyed fishing and camping with friends and family. Rick was an avid collector of many things, and he enjoyed sharing his interests with others.

Rick's life will be celebrated through a memorial service at 2 p.m. on February 16th at Sisco Funeral Chapel in Springdale.

To sign the guestbook online please visit www.siscofuneral.com

Tribute Wall

“ Rick Anderson

January 21, 2023 at 02:29 PM

“ Mike & Brenda,

*We were so sorry to hear of the poor health of Rick from Sharen,
and now the news of his passing is all the more sorrowful.*

Please know that we are wishing you only strength and peace in the coming days.

Your friends,

Greg & Billye

Gregory & Billye Bone - May 29, 2013 at 05:00 PM

“ I knew Rick for far to short of time. He will be dearly missed. My condolences to all his family.

John Armistead - May 29, 2013 at 05:00 PM

“ RIP

Richard Choate - May 29, 2013 at 05:00 PM

CM

“ Mike & Brenda

I am truly sorry to here of Rick's passing and for missing his services. I've not been able to find any of your contact info, but if I can be of any help, please contact me.

Craig

Craig T. Mauritson - May 29, 2013 at 05:00 PM