

Ricky Wayne Ingram

April 6, 1953 - July 13, 2024

Ricky Wayne Ingram, 71, Hindsville, AR, left this life on Saturday, July 13, 2024. Rick was born April 6, 1953, in Fort Worth, Texas, to Alva Joe Ingram and Beatrice G. (White) Ingram.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, Jerry and Johnny Ingram, and many more loved ones that have gone before.

He is survived by his brother Alvin Ingram and wife Debra, one son Timmie Shepherd and wife Sarita, one daughter Bethel Ponder and husband Alvin, nine grandchildren, several great grandchildren, Nephews, Nieces, extended and chosen family, that will miss him forever.

Rick accomplished many things in life. He was kind of a Jack of all trades, from owning his own business to factory work, construction, and sales. There wasn't much "Locksmith Rick" couldn't do. He had several passions and hobbies as well, he could play a three string guitar and speak to your soul. He also won an Elvis impersonation contest because he had an amazing voice. He enjoyed time with his family and friends, always making us smile with his witty humor. He would stop at nothing to put a smile on your face, and there is nothing he wouldn't do for those he loved.

A graveside service will be at Burkeshed Cemetery at 10 AM, Friday, July 19th, 2024. Please come as you are—that's how Uncle Rick would want it, nothing special.
