“ Sparky Bob, I'm just now finding out you have gone to your Heavenly home. I'm so sorry to hear this, I am broken hearted as I am sure your family is to. I just can't believe you're gone. You made me laugh so much, you loved Cheshire so much and I know you loved Julie too. It wasn't that long ago that I talked to Ray about you. Apparently he doesn't know yourE gone euther. Wish I had known sooner. Until we meet again my friend. Kathy Collins

“ We each had our mother's love of weaving in common. My mom had one of his mom's rugs. I still have my mom's loom but I'm not sure if he still had his mom's. I will miss seeing him up the street and in the window at work. Safe journey, my dear friend.

Ginger my name is Kathy Collins I was a friend of Robert and Julie way back in the 80. Was a friend of Julie since we were in our teens. Spent a lot of time with them when they lived in the house on Bluff Ave. I just now today found his obit. I was shocked and extremely saddened and heart broken. I lost touch with them when I moved up to South Dakota. Can you tell me what happened, and how is Cheshire doing? Her and my daughter are 9 months apart in age and played together whenever we went over to their house. What happened to Julie? Even though we haven't spoken in many years they both were never far from my thoughts. Any info would be greatly appreciated so I might forward it on to Ray McKnight who was a good friend of Robert's but as things go, they too lost contact. Thank you
