I am so sorry for your loss. I only met Roger one time briefly in 2005 but he seemed like a truly good man and I am glad you were blessed to have him be your father. I am so sorry for your loss. You and Emma are in my thoughts and prayers now and always.

“ That one of a kind chuckle. The bouncing body chuckle that he got from his momma. That chuckle was enough to make everyone in the room join him in his happiness. He loved so deep, his feelings always worn on his sleeve. My Uncle Roger was the baby of the family. I remember him playing with my brother and I, mostly protecting us from his brother, my Uncle Kevin and his pranks. Uncle Roger was one of my heroes. His love for me, my brother, his other nieces and nephews, his parents, brothers and sisters was well known. And the love he had for his wife Julie and his children was nothing short of a fairy tale. Julie was his soul mate, without question, and River and Emma made them whole. My sweet, loving Uncle will forever be missed, and that chuckle... will always remain in our hearts. All my love, Kellie Hevelone

“ You will be missed Uncle Roggy. It will not be the same without you. I will always miss your infectious laugh that you couldn't help but laugh when you heard it. I will miss that smile and the way your face would light up when you saw us. I'm going to miss the goofy jokes you always told. The way you always picked on me. Most of all, I'm going to miss you. You always had a way of making me feel better when I was down. Make me laugh when I didn't want to. I love you Uncle Roggy. Rest in peace.

“ I have lost a dear friend. Roger will be in my thoughts always. To his family and loved ones, I share your grief. Roger was a co-worker. He and I worked closely together. Roger could always see the positive in every situation. He was funny; he liked to joke around. His laughter was infectious. He was always willing to help no matter the task. As I look over from my cube at work, it seems strange that he is not sitting there in his chair, at his desk. Not seeing him from now on will take some getting used to. Roger was a great guy and he will be deeply missed. Roger was like a brother I never had. Please extend my sympathy to your entire family and know how much I share your pain during this sad time.

Julie:
I am so sorry for your loss. You are such a wonderful person and your Tyson family thinks the world of you as they do Roger.
Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers at this time.

Julie,
I worked with Roger at corporate and must say that he was always willing to help and answer questions without seeming like I was a burden on him. Considering my relative "newness" to Tyson that was a tremendous benefit to me and I will miss having him as a friendly resource. Many thoughts and prayers go out to you and your children.
