“ My neighbor, friend Rolan was a special real gentleman. Although it has been almost nine years since we were together, I remember him well and am proud to have known him. I believe that only God can judge someone; however, I believe that Rolan will be a welcome guest at the heavenly banquet.

With love, Jane and Dave Turner

“ I have so many wonderful memories of my Uncle Rolan- he was such of a blessing to be a part of his life and to be able to call him family. He and his wife, Nedra were always there when my parents needed help with anything- all they had to do was pick up the phone and they would be there. Rolan was always so ornery and made so many people laugh- my son said that the reason he loved him and Nedra was because they never judged him and always loved him no matter what. I will miss him so much and will love him forever.
