Tho cousins, I didn't meet Ronda until grown. She was easy to talk to and fun to visit. She loved her dog, Boomer, who I understand has a new family now. She would be happy about that. Ronda will be missed and loved always,

“ Ronda was one of my first cousins, and I loved her. When I got my first glasses (3rd grade), I had fallen behind in school because I couldn't see the blackboard, she took it on to teach me to read. She used her Childcraft enclopedias to teach me. My fave was the nursery rhyme/short children's stories volume. She would underline in pen the problem words and send it home with me until the next week. Then when we were finished she presented me with those books. I still have them, I still treasure them, I read the rhymes to my own children. She was patient and kind and always had a treat waiting for me. Our family will miss her, our family loved her.
