“ I remember Roy and his family ever since I was a small child. They lived across the round top mountain from my family. Roy layes was a great cook on the bbq grill when it came to cooking just about every thing. I went and visited Roy several years ago, gave me a shot of moonshine, had a headache for 2 days. I finally made time to visit Roy and his family just a few weeks ago and had a great visit. Roy may you rest in peace beside the Lord.

I have so many memories through the years that I spent most of yesterday reminiscing; and with each memory, others would come flooding into my mind. I love you Uncle and will see you again soon. My heartfelt sympathy is with all family and friends and my prayers are with you all.
