“ We were deeply saddened to learn of Sam's passing. Sam and Elizabeth were our first contacts with the Wild West History Association. They took us under wing at the Golden, CO Roundup as if we were family. Although Sam's quiet voice has been silenced, it lingers in our memories. Many and especially us will miss his soft-spoken voice. Memories of good times spent with Sam at the Roundups and during our visits over the years will live forever in our memories. We will miss him.

“ Sam was the strong, silent type of guy who made his words “count.” Wonderful memories of him being such a supportive husband to Elizabeth. He was so proud of her success in the insurance field. Sam and Elizabeth made a great couple.

“ Sending love and prayers of comfort to the family during this time of great loss. Sam was kind and welcoming to me when Whitney and I were running around as crazy teenagers. I enjoyed when Sam and Elizabeth would come into Razorback Pizza, and I always waited on them because they were like family to me. They were a special couple accepting me at a time in my life when I needed it the most. I didn't realize it until I saw the obituary, but Sam and my grandson Ezra share a birthday. That made me smile. Rest in peace Sam.
