“ I had the fortune to know Sean through work. We became friends. The sense of humor keen and perfectly timed. There are smiles and soft chuckles at his antics being shared amongst all of his friends. Sean made us all smile and he did it effortlessly. We will miss this person. His love of his kids, his love of life, and a good moment. He made a lot of great moments with those around him. Thankful for his friendship.

“ I had the sweet privilege of having Sean in my third grade class at T.G. Smith Elementary many years ago. I remember him as a kind, considerate, athletic, and very bright young man. He often stopped by my room to say hello when he happened by the school to see his mother. His daughter, Josie and my granddaughter, Camille played together as preschoolers. Karen has always held a special place in my heart. We taught side by side for several years. I'm so very sorry for the loss of this precious life. I'm sending prayers for peace and comfort to Sean's little sister, his children, and especially Tommy and Karen. Their lives will never be the same.

“ My wife Pamela and I attended Turner St. Baptist with Sean’s folks Tommy and Karen. We became close friends and often played Putt Putt Golf and went to Dairy Queen after church on Sunday nights. We were so excited while Karen was pregnant and thrilled when Sean got here. He was a big ‘un. Sean was about 6 or 7 months old when we became pregnant with our first. Seems like the Putt Putt slowed down and we spent more time playing games at Their house. I finished school before our Adam was born and we moved to Texas. I would have loved to see them grow up together. Pamela always said Karen was just far enough ahead of her to set an example on pregnancy and handling newborns. I pray the Lord will keep all y’all in his hands during this difficult time. Troy K. Warford

Sean was a incredible young man with the ability to light up a locker room, when I coached him at Central Junior High. His humble approach and his athletic ability and skill contributed in Central winning a conference championship 94-95, I will never forget that group and the good times I had, and Sean’s smile will always be stamped in my memory of that time. I am so sorry for your lost. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Coach Darren Vaughn
