“ I had the opportunity to work with Sharon at McGoodwin, Williams and Yates for about 30 years. She was a wealth of knowledge with a quiet demeanor and a beautiful smile. I learned so much from Sharon. My sincere sympathy to Tommy and family.

“ Sharon was a dear friend of mine...we grew up together at Brush Creek Baptist church...she was my maid of honor and I played the piano for her wedding. I have wonderful memories of Sharon picking me up in her always spotless beautiful car. Sometimes I'd stay over night at her house....she made biscuits and white gravy for breakfast always. Sharon was beautiful, smart, sensible, funny, talented. My sincere sympathy and prayers to her family. May God comfort them in the days ahead.
