“ Katrina and Cody, I am so very sorry for your loss. I met Sharon for the first time back in 1966 and then again many years later when I took care of your grandmother, Velma. Sharon had a heart of gold as did the rest of your family. She loved her family very much and always talked about how proud she was of you on the day of your Graduation! Our thoughts and prayers go out to you at this time. Sincerely, Mary Isaac
