I went to school with Coetta's sister, Colleen, who died in an auto accident in the late 60s. Coetta was injured in that same accident, but thankfully survived. She now joins all her loved ones who went on before her. There is comfort in knowing that, but I know it's very sad and hard for the ones who remain here for now, May the good memories of Coetta fill your mind and heart now and going forward.

I'm sorry for your loss. I really liked Coetta and Price. I knew them when they lived on Westwood with their dog Sofie. I'm sure Coetta is basking in heaven with her loved ones. I always think of this quote when a loved one passes; Remember me with smiles and laughter for that is how I remember you. If you only remember me with tears and heartache, then you really don't remember me at all. God bless you all.

RIP my long time friend. We were classmates for many years. Graduated with the SHS Golden Seniors in 1962- what a great class. Will miss Coetta, but know that she is out of pain and at peace with her family.
