“ I was so sorry to hear of Sharon's passing. We were good friends in high school, but as often happens we had somewhat lost touch with each other. Regardless, I will still miss her. Her family will be in my prayers

“ Beaver Lake, the party barge, mom and dad playing cards with Jerry and Sharon, hula hoops, Sharon's perfume. All fond memories of growing up. We were fortunate to have the extended family. I was so glad I was here when you and Sharon came to visit mom and dad. Through all the health issues over the past few years Sharon was still the woman I remember. She was such a strong woman. I love you guys and want you to know that my heart is broken but there is a joy in knowing she is no longer in pain. We will be here if you need us.

“ Jerry and Lisa, You have always been like family to all of us and my heart broke when I heard of Sharon's passing. My Mom and Dad are very fortunate to have such wonderful, life-long friends in you. I am so grateful that I took the time this past year to drive them up the mountain for quick visits. I was in my hotel room listening to my IPOD music just an hour or so after getting word of Sharon when Delta Dawn played. I called Dad to check on them and tell them about the song...he just laughed...he loved to sing that to you back in the day! I hate that I cannot make it to the funeral tomorrow as I am in San Francisco until tomorrow night. Mom, Dad, Kim, Kris and two of Dad's brothers (Vic and Gary) will be there... and I will be there in thoughts and prayers. Love You Guys!

“ Sharon has always been stuck in my mind as that gorgeous young 20-something lady who lived on Beaver Lake, drove a beetle and shared cards and life with my parents. She was as much as aunt to me as any of my others. And Popey has been my uncle though not be blood but something even stronger.

Monday, July 26, the Gates of Heaven swung open and Sharon's faithful & devoted family gently lifted her safely into the arms of Jesus. Rest now, sweet Sharon, in the painless love and care of Christ our Lord & Savior. Jerry & Lisa, Stan and babies, peace & comfort will abide in your hearts through your faith. When we think of the weight of your sorrow, it makes our own hearts hurt. We cannot think of anything we can say or do at this time for your family to ease the pain of your loss. We can only hope that through prayer and the love of those surrounding you, you find some comfort. With all our love...
