“ Cathy, Joel and Michael:

I did not have the privilege of meeting Sheldon face to face. I spoke with him many time over the phone from the Little Rock office of I.E.S. He was always cheerful and always willing to help. I really admired his courage in his struggle. We were praying for him and pray for each of you. He was a wonderful colleague and will be missed.

God bless!

“ My heart and prayers go out to you and your family during your time of sorrow. I thoroughly enjoyed caring for Mr. Means while he was at our facility. He always had a smile and worked very diligently to get stronger, but God had other plans for him. Now he is whole and healthy and with his Father in heaven. May God give you peace and may His arms enfold you and hold you close. God bless you all.

“Cathy, Joel, and Michael, Heaven has grown a little brighter. Sheldon was such a wonderful person, upbeat, smiling, and just a joy to be around. He has touched so many lives and hearts. He loved his family with such a passion that it was an inspiration for others. It is amazing how many people have been praying for Sheldon and his family. He faced his battle with such a heroic attitude. Sheldon is now in glory without pain. I believe he will patiently wait for all of us to join him one day. He will live forever in our hearts and will be so dearly missed. We all loved him so much. God Bless and be with you Sheldon and may God bring peace to all of his family.

“Cathy, Joel, & Michael, my heart goes out to you. You will be in my thoughts often. Everyone grieves differently, there is no wrong way, no wrong time. But if there is anything you need, if you want to talk, please, call me. Or just someone to cry with, I'm getting really good at that.

Sheldon, when you see Alex, give her a hug from daddy. I shall miss our talks, solving the worlds problems, if only they would listen to us. I shall miss you, my friend.

*Pax Vobiscum, Adieu

May the life he lived bring others to a saving and close intimate relationship with Jesus Christ! May you feel the peace of God and know our prayers are with you during this time.
