

Shirley Grace "Gram" Morrow

November 16, 1935 - February 23, 2025

Shirley Grace Morrow, or Gram, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed peacefully at home with her family on February 23rd, 2025, at the age of 89. Born on November 16th, 1935, in Marblehead, Massachusetts, daughter of Hilda and Avrit Morris.

Family was Shirley's livelihood. She was preceded in death by former husband Thomas Raymond Morrow, and her beloved daughter, Donna (LaBelle). She leaves behind a legacy with her children; Cynthia (Freitas), Tommy, and Shawn, Her Grandchildren: Amanda (Moore), Joshua (LaBelle), Jonathan (LaBelle), Mathew (Colson), Tom, Shawn Jr., and Grace, along with her many, many Great- Grandchildren, plus her Fur-Babies: Patches, Beau, and Ginger. Each was individually loved, adored, and touched by having her as a part of their lives. All are left with a love and legacy to cherish, continuing the memory of Gram long beyond her passing.

Shirley spent most of her life in Lynn and Byfield, Massachusetts, where she settled into a life of raising family. In January of 1991, she moved to Springdale, Arkansas, where she continued to nurture those around her expressing love with cooking, laughter, kindness and her generous spirit. She found joy in her dogs, plants, bingo, caring for others, and enjoying a cup of coffee. Gram was at the heart of any gathering as a guiding presence for all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Though she departed this world, Shirley will be returned back to Marblehead, Massachusetts, her birthplace, resigned to the Morris Family Plot where she will be laid to rest. A celebration of her life will be held at a later date, where family and friends will come together to honor her memory and the love she so freely gave. Her love, devotion, and nurturing homemaker spirit will live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind. May she rest in peace, forever surrounded by the warmth of family, the aroma of coffee, and the love that never fades.
