“ We have enjoyed knowing Sid for several years through his position at Atlanta Bread. He has been an inspiration in our lives and we have been blessed by knowing him. His warm, sincere smile and his genuine delight in just being alive was contagious. He was much more than just the job and truly seemed to be interested and care for his fellow workers and customers. We looked forward to seeing him on our many visits to the bakery.

We are sorry for your loss and the world's loss as well. There is some consolation in knowing how much he was loved and admired...this sweet and humble man and how much he inspired others as they went through their day. We will miss him.

“ Laura and family, we are so very sorry for your loss. I know Sid must've counted himself lucky to be surrounded by folks who cared so very much for him. I only wish I'd had the chance to meet him. I know you've had a lot on your shoulders for a while now. Please let us know what we can do to help. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
