“ Trela and Erica
So sorry to hear about your husband and dad, there is nothing i can say to ease the pain. I will be praying for you as you go though this difficult time. I pray God will give you strength to make it day to day and comfort at night when the loneliness sets in. Just remember i will always be thinking about you, this is the hardest thing a person can do yet somehow God gives us strength that we don't realize we have May God Bless you all

Words can never express my sorrow for your loss. You have been a part of my life for many years and my heart breaks for all of you. I pray God gives you comfort and peace that surpasses understanding during this difficult time. You are in my heart and in my prayers and I will hold you up to the Lord and ask him to wrap his loving arms around you and give you strength and endurance. I love you my friend, I hope your peace in the midst of the storm is to know how much people love and care for you.

“ My memory of my brother ...he was very giving of his cars. When I needed a way to work he always said just take my car. He never gave it a second thought. He was always in the garage tinkering with his motorcycle listening to KMOD. He never said much but I knew he was always there for me. We spoke recently it was hard for me to not be emotional. I wanted to be strong for him like he always was. We had a very short but sweet conversation. I told him I loved him and I was coming home to see him. God had other plans. I love you brother, I have comfort and peace knowing he is with Our Father in heaven no more pain just happiness.
