“ I hope that Stella and my mom had a grand reunion at Heaven's Gates! Aunt Stella (not actually my Aunt, but that's what I always called her) was one of the sweetest souls I ever knew. She always greeted me with a warm hug and kind words. My mom thought so highly of her cousin and they both held good memories of growing up together. I pray God gives her whole family comfort at this time. ❤️

“ As the only child of Leroy's who was born after his move to Michigan and being overly sentimental of my childhood, I have always cherished my southern roots. I have always cherished Stella's relationship with us kids. Annual visits, and can't recall one summer that she didn't show to spend time with us. Handwritten letters in the mail throughout the year expressing excitement to see us again. As an adult, I have made it back to visit just one time now 23 years later, my trip is planned and I am on my way to find that she won't be there, I never told her how much I felt her love from across the country. To my family, you are suffering great loss and you are in my prayers.
