

Steve Robert Cannata

August 2, 1987 - July 6, 2025

Steve Robert Cannata passed away on July 06, 2025, in Rogers, Arkansas. He was born August 02, 1987, to Steven M Cannata (1955 - 2014) and Robin J Cannata (1955 - 2006).

Steve is survived by his two sisters and their husbands; Jamie Neely and husband Matt Neely, Laura Guy and husband Josh Guy. His two nephews, Owen Neely and Levi Neely. He leaves behind his significant other, Stacey Hansen.

As a young boy, his “Pops” taught him how to hunt, fish, and survive in the wilderness. He quickly mastered these life skills, and they turned into his passion as he became an adult man. Steve enjoyed annual hunting trips to X-12 in the Sierra Nevada, loved the anticipation of a bite on the other end of the fishing pole, and found peace within the waters of lakes and streams. Steve’s biggest dream in life was to explore the vast wilderness of Alaska, but that dream died with him.

Steve was known for his kind giving spirit, a special gift that was passed down to him from his mom. He had sincere compassion for people in need and could never walk by someone who was hungry without purchasing them a meal. A non-judgmental soul who believed in the value of human dignity.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, a project that Steve supported and was close to his heart.

“ Stevie and I were best friends as our families were close until we moved when I was nine. I remember all the times we pulled all the cushions of the couches and used sheets to make forts or the times we turned cards into elaborate mazes in his living room. We spent hours outside building tree houses and playing in the woods or camping in the backyard tent. I was just talking to my sister last week about the time our families went camping in the Sierra's and Stevie and I try to pet the bear cubs (lucky for us Mama bear wasn't around) and later that trip we got surrounded by the hungry deer we were feeding carrots and had to be rescued. Although I have not seen or talked with him in a long time, I will always remember how kind and caring and genuine a person he was. I will never forget his laugh and onrey personality. May he rest easy with his parents in heaven. ”
