“ My mother, Mildred Clark, and Lorene were friends and Sunday School buddies for many years. They also used to live close to each other in North Springdale. I think of Lorene every time I drive by the house she used to live in, and I remember her as a very kind and caring lady. I know you will always miss her, but I hope your memories will bring you comfort. With Sincere Sympathy, Vicky Clark Strange

Lorene is my Mithers cousin. She is the last of their generation. She was such a kind, compassionate and loving member of the family. Never was there an unkind word from her. She loved her family and was so proud of being a "Kendrick"! I loved her with all my heart!
