

Suvernia "Suvy" Johnny Chanhchanh

October 20, 1989 - February 3, 2017

Suvernia "Suvy" Johnny Chanhchanh (born October 30, 1989 in Fayetteville, Arkansas) passed away peacefully at home in Springdale, Arkansas on February 3, 2017. Suvy (27), as his family called him, grew up in Springdale, where he attended Springdale High School. Suvy had a zest for life tempered by an appreciation for simple things. He enjoyed music, gaming, collecting vintage and new anime items, fishing, traveling and spending time with family and friends.

Suvy had many family and friends who loved him, including his co-workers at Walmart Neighborhood Market, Store #5738.

Suvy will be remembered as a simple, kind, funny, laid back, and gentle soul. He is survived by his parents, Songka Chantharath (father, Springdale); Elizabeth "Kham" Phetlasy (mother, Porterville, California); and, Khamtou Silaphet (stepfather, Porterville, California); his sisters, Wendy Kimball (Bentonville), Tina Ferguson (Kyle Ferguson, brother-in-law, Fort Worth, Texas); and niece, Kaylee Ferguson (Fort Worth, Texas).

Suvy was preceded in death by his grandparents, aunts, uncles and nephew, Kylan Kimball.

A celebration of Suvy's life was held at 2 p.m. on Monday, February 13, 2017 at Friendship Cemetery where he was then laid to rest.
