

Sylvia K Crain

December 22, 1951 - September 22, 2021

Sylvia K Crain 69 of Springdale, passed away on September 22, 2021 at NW. Medical Center in Springdale. She was born on December 22, 1951 in Fort Smith to Glenn Click and Ruth McGee Click.

Sylvia was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Michael Walker, husband John Crain and one brother, Glenn Curtis Click.

Survivors include daughter Tobi Walker; step daughter Shannon Crain; grandson Dillan Grigg; sister Glenda Sue Bunch (Gary); nephews Chad Bunch (Amanda), Steve Click (Cheryl) and great nephew Cole Bunch.

Sylvia was a loving mother and grandmother. She enjoyed watching Dillan Play football and of course, was a Razorback fan. Sylvia was an avid lover of nature. One of her favorite things was camping at the lake every memorial day weekend, in the rain! She spent summers on the lake, in the boat or behind the boat on a ski. Sylvia was introduced to horses by husband Johnnie. The two of them spent many years training and racing quarter horses. This is when her true passion for horses developed. She has always kept the feeders full for all birds but was in a constant battle with squirrels! Sylvia was also a wonderful and devoted mother to her spoiled fur babies, Katie and Gabby.

Memorial services will be Tuesday, September 28, 2021 at 11:00 a.m. at Sisco

Funeral Chapel of Springdale.

Family and friends are invited for lunch following service.

In lieu of flowers please make donations to an animal shelter or hospice of your choice.
