“ Beverly & Jana, Christian Life Cathedral will not be the same without Ted there. I prayed for his healing from this terrible virus. Our Lord chose to give Ted the ultimate Devine healing. He will be dearly missed. I enjoyed door greeting him once a month and always called Ted "Miss Jewel's Chauffeur". He would laugh. I can just see Miss Jewel and Ted having a great reunion. We shall see them again. In the meantime your family will stay in our prayers. May God give you the peace that passes all understanding during this very hard time.

God bless you!

“ Mrs. Cordes... Funny, I remember you telling me, while standing on your front sidewalk, that I could quit calling you "Mrs.". That you weren't my teacher anymore. :) You and your husband, Ted, were such an inspiration to me every time you came into Razorback Pizza. I, of course, felt such a closeness to the both of you. Please know that I send my love, prayers, hugs, kisses.

“ I will always remember his laugh. I will always remember how he kidded Darlene back-and-forth. I will always remember he was outnumbered by the women in his life. He was always up for a good time. I will see him again....love you guys ...Rebekah Rigby, Pensacola, FL

“ 69 years ago. That's when I met Ted, Darlene, Virgil & Jewel. We've been friends for that long. Although we moved to Broken Arrow, OK several years ago, our friendship was forged from the beginning. What a great family heritage Ted leaves, great Christian and man of God, wonderful husband and father and friend. Our fathers served on the church board together during a time of church building and bringing a young pastor by the name of Red Dixon to NW Arkansas. Beverly, we have such great memories that it's difficult to know where to begin for fear of leaving something out. All of those times on the lake, Ted selling me my first boat, camping out on the pontoon boat and the storm coming up, all of the meals we shared and just the closeness of our families. And Ted has now come in first again and beat us to heaven. I'm going to miss him as I know you and your family will. We can all take comfort in knowing he is in the arms of Jesus and in no more pain. Lana and I will be holding you and Jana up in prayer, praying God's greatest peace and comfort to you at this time and for the days to come. Jack & Lana Yates

“ The loss of my sweet cousin is heartbreaking, even though I know he is now with Jesus and all the loved ones who will be there to greet him. Ted and I shared a photography hobby. He was much more technically trained so I loved to seek his advice on projects I hoped to accomplish. We promised each other that we would take a photo trip and shoot some of the beautiful waterfalls, creeks and lakes. I hope there are cameras in heaven. Maybe a single lens reflex, a good digital, or at least a Brownie Hawkeye so we can some day keep some of those promises. Wouldn't that be amazing? See you later, Ted. Rest easy. We love you. Forever and Always.

“ Beverly and Jana - I know you are hurting today because of your loss, but am happy for Ted's "gain". I was once told by a wise lady that we humans are very selfish. We want to hold onto our loved ones even though it is much better for them to go on and that is true. They have made it to where we are trying to go. They just beat us there. Prayers for comfort and strength for both of you. Love you. Rosalind McBride

“ I loved Ted the first time I ever met him. Later, he and Beverly adopted me into their family like my family adopted Jana. Ted loved the Lord and it showed. It makes me smile knowing he is with Jesus and it makes me think of the song "I Can Only Imagine". My prayers are with you. I love you.

“ MY BEST FRIEND, FELLOW CHURCH MATE, OVER FIFTY-FIVE YEARS HERE. OUR FAMILIES ENJOYED BOATING ON BEAVER LAKE, EATING AT DIFFERENT BBQ RESTAURANTS AND AN OCCASIONAL GHERALDI PRIME RIB DINNER, CELEBRATING ONE OF OUR BIRTHDAYS OR A WEDDING ANNIVERSARY. TED JOINED FIVE OTHER CHURCH MATES SERVING AS A CHURCH BOARD MEMBER.

PRAYERS ARE COVETED FOR HIS WIFE BEVERLY ( WARD ) CORDES, DAUGHTER, DETECTIVE JANA CORDES OF THE LOWELL, AR ARK STATE POLICE HDQ. WE WILL MISS TED HERE, KNOWING THE C O V I D VIRUS TOOK HIS EARTHLY BODY FROM US, BUT NOT HIS SPIRIT, MEMORIES OF A GREAT LIFE.
