“ I met Dian in 2000 when she was assigned to be my mentor when I started with Edward Jones. Dian was truly one of the kindest, most thoughtful people I have had the pleasure of knowing. Her impact will stay with me always.

“ I remember going to church at the well. I would often see her there and from a distance I thought it was Runonda. I went over to her and she laughed just like her sister. We were friends after that. She was a beautiful lady with an even more beautiful soul. Heaven is rejoicing. Although shes so missed here. Praying for all of your family. Love. Angela Collins
