

Terri Annette Miller

February 25, 1955 - April 29, 2015

Terri Annette Miller, 60 passed away on April 29. She was born on February 25th 1955 in Little Rock, Arkansas to Arley and Jeanette Jackson.

Terri was a woman dedicated to her belief system, and as a teacher, she believed in education. She was an extrovert that loved being involved, and later in life, that drive evolved into an aspiration to help people who had experienced some of the same hardships she had endured. Terri was active, and bordered on being an activist for the causes she held at a high esteem.

If Terri could speak to us this very moment, she would encourage all of us to become involved in helping others with dementia, or the caregivers of those with dementia.

This disease does terrible things to millions of people, but honestly, Terri's type of dementia changed her into a laughing, carefree, even more active individual, and just like her dedication to other causes, she was dedicated to being more than the disease.

And just like her dedication to other beliefs, Terri was a follower of Christ, and his words and actions were and guide line to her life.

In 1st Corinthians Chp.15 VS. 42 it reads

“The body that is sown is perishable; it is raised imperishable.
It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body.

Terri is now that spiritual body, she has been lifted from the burden of disease, and has arrived in her perfect home.

So as we go forth today, let us pray to be reminded of Terri in the small, delicate ways that add grace to our lives.

Survivors include one sister, Laura Jackson, one daughter, Amy Alexander of Fayetteville, one step daughter, Kelly Latham of Georgia, and one step son, Jeffery Miller of Georgia, and her boyfriend Jay Williams of Springdale.

Her service was on May 8th, 2015.
