“ The Duncan family has always been very special to the Miners. I am so thankful that we were blessed to live next door to you in Mulberry. Sorry we were unable to attend your mom's service, but our thoughts and prayers are with you. There were never two finer people than your mom and dad. We love you all.

“ Your mom and dad were great neighbors and were a support when Robert died. Though I lost contact after I moved from Gail Street, I've wondered at times how things were going. Please accept my thoughts and prayers for you all now, as you finish and tie up ends, and adapt to that change in your daily activities.
