“ Sure am going to miss this guy greeting us at church to hand us our bulletin, he was our go to guy. Tom had such a friendly gentle smile and so easily approachable, an excellent characteristic for a Deacon to have for sure. He always loved telling Robert & I about the progress of, and new parts for, his latest Mustang, while it was getting restored. I enjoyed seeing and visiting with he and Blair at some local car shows a few years back. It was so precious how he wasn't just proud of his Mustang, he was pretty proud and honored to have his granddaughter there with him to share the experience. Such a kind spirited and Godly man with a servants heart. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him. Prayers for the family during this difficult time. May God give you peace and strength.
