“ Dear, Tina I recall the times when you, Tiffany, when y'all would come into Walmart. I would walk around with y'all and shop with you and talk. Your kindness always stood out, and I cherished our conversations while browsing through the aisles. Your warm demeanor towards Kelton and me never went unnoticed, and we are truly grateful for your friendship. The last memory I have with you is in the Walmart parking lot with Tiffany, where you mentioned getting your nails done. Your presence will be deeply missed by many.

Rest in peace, beautiful. ❤️❤️❤️
