“ Tom Ed was a favorite childhood playmate and the nicest prankster a 5-year old could have as a cousin. Loved him as a child, loved him as an adult. He knew how to "throw his voice" and as a very young child I thought he was magic. And he was!

Sorrow knows no bounds when you lose a long-time close friend. Tom Ed and I were friends for 65 years. Linda has no siblings and Tom Ed filled the void she felt from having no brother. His care and concern for both of us was always apparent whether we were together or apart. A favorite memory that he would say (when the four of us were dining out) to our server if they would ask what else may I get you. He always said "more money". When introducing his brother, Richard, he would say, "He's the rich one and I'm the handsome one". what good memories. We were in Ft. Smith Jr. High 1950 grade school beginning band, Jr.High, Sr. High and The High School Dance Band and The Cabin Boy Society through graduation in 1958. God bless, keep the family strong, bring peace and healing. R.I.P.

Met Tom Ed in 1958 when he, Charlie Love and I went to work for Kroger when Park Plaza opened. We were also attending Ft Smith Junior College. We were the best of friends for the next two years. Sadly, we parted ways after graduation. I went to Ark Tech, Charlie to the Navy and we all lost contact with each other. Many fond memories. My sympathies to his family.
