“ I just learned of TJ's passing. He was my best friend when we were kids. We didn't manage to stay close as we grew to adults, but I still tried to keep in touch. I had actually been sending him texts over the last couple years, and this year, and didn't know why he hadn't responded. I do miss you, TJ.

“ I still can't believe this is real. I walk around with a lump in my throat fighting back tears. I love you so much T.J. and wish I could have one more conversation with you. I'll see you again I know and that is what keeps me going. Rest in Peace baby brother 💔

“ My sweet, loving, generous child. Your struggles and pain are behind you, now. I'll see you when I get to heaven and the stories we can tell. Rest with the angels and soar without pain. You will always be my baby boy. Love you to the moon and back, babe.
