Vada was the sweetest person, always had a smile, and loved to share with us each time she had something new in her room. She was the greatest roommate to our mom/grandmother, and mother misses her so much. We miss her,too. Louise Powers, Shane Thorpe and family, Jeff Thorpe and family, Walter Franke and family*

“ When I was a little girl (I'm 54 now), I used to go shopping at Harp's with my father, and Miss Vada would check us out. She was always so cheerful and friendly, and I loved her! I wanted to grow up to be a checkout lady just like her! Once when we were in her line, my dad started teasing Vada and calling her a "squaw," and I piped up and said, "she's not a squaw! She's a beautiful Indian maiden!" Vada and my dad just laughed and laughed! I think she was delighted that I called her a beautiful Indian maiden! She was the neatest lady, and I will miss her!

“ At one time or another, practically everyone in my family worked for Harp's and we all knew Vada. She worked with my dad at the old South Harp's for years and my husband and I worked with her at #119. She was a spunky hardworking gal back then. My husband had the pleasure of visiting with Vada at City Hospital not too long ago. he was happy to have seen her after all these years. Our thoughts are with her family.
