“ My favorite memories of my Grannie are from the 80's. I would do her hair and make-up and off to the VFW we'd go to dance. She didn't dance much due to having hurt her foot and it giving her issues. But she sure loved to watch and listen to the live music. We'd spend the night talking and laughing.

I also remember wanting to be a model and she spent hours taking pictures with me doing a million clothing changes. I even talked her into modeling a little, somewhere a long the line the pictures have been lost but those great memories are always with me.
