“ I wish that I had more time to spend with Aunt Wanda. In the short time that we connected she made me feel as if I was a part of her family all along. She loved her family and she loved the Lord. Now she’s with Him and that is comforting to know. I am praying for you all this weekend as you celebrate her life. I wish I could be there. Love you Bailey family!

“ She was a real sister in Christ. I remember the first days of planting Morning Star Church. When we met at her house at Christmas time, I was amazed at how much she was INTO decorating, even in the bathroom ha ha. Loved her energy then.

“ The only thing Wanda loved more than her family was her Savior. Her life was a tremendous example of loving people like Jesus. Now, it's Christmas forever for Wanda.
