

Whitney Marie Easley

August 25, 1991 - August 29, 2025

Whitney Marie Easley, 34, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, passed away on August 29, 2025. She was born in Fayetteville, Arkansas, on August 25, 1991, to Mitchell Johnson and Vicki Noeltner.

Whitney was a deeply caring spirit who loved people, animals, and especially her German Shepherds. She was empathetic and independent, never afraid to think for herself or question the world around her. She loved her family dearly and was especially close to her “G-Dad,” Dewey Johnson, who was a constant source of love and support in her life.

She cherished time with her daughter, Kenlee (“KK”), and with her family and friends. Whitney’s compassion extended to rescuing animals, offering help to others, and living with courage despite her struggles. Her family takes comfort in knowing she accepted Christ as a child and rests now in His care.

Whitney is survived by her parents, Mitchell Johnson and Vicky (Chuck) Noeltner; her daughter, Kenlee; her brother, Mitchell (Amanda) Johnson; her niece, Melanie; her grandfather, Dewey Johnson; her aunt, Lori Johnson Brandon; and many cousins, extended family, and friends. She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Betty “Meme” Johnson, and maternal grandparents, Tony and Pat Sadler.

“ Roo, you will be remembered for your intelligence, kindness, and the sweetness you carried. Even though your time with us was short, you left an impression that will not be forgotten. You had the heart and insight of someone who could change the world, and we know you touched more lives than you realized. ”

Your story is a powerful reminder of the struggles so many face and of why compassion and care are so important. May your family find comfort in knowing how deeply you were loved and how many lives you impacted. Rest peacefully.

K - Thank You! You were a wonderful baby sitter and we were very fortunate. I remember you taking them often to your parents to see Rusty the Labrador, if my memory serves me correctly. I do remember you calling me all panicked at work in Rogers one day about this time of year. You were headed off the Elm Springs exit and a red wasp had flown in the window of your truck. I drove down to find you parked on the shoulder with you, sis and baby brother standing off from the road because you didn't want them to get stung. You, your parents and sisters are wonderful people that's always had our respect.

“ Me and roo were in county jail and prison together. We both wouldn't confirm to the laws and regulations of this world. She was on my field squad unit and when I was sick from dehydration roo carried me to the field I couldn't walk(kept throwing up) she just kept helping me back up(telling me you gotta keep going) she was so strong & beautiful!! I will miss her light. I hope she's finally at peace with the one she loved. She had so much left for the world. A true angel is now home.

“Wow!! I am in awe and feel as if I knew this exceptional human you loved so dearly!! My deepest condolences and prayers for you and all those who loved her! I feel as if I knew her personally. What a profound way to honor and bring the darkness into the light in such an honorable manner!!! As someone affected by this crisis i felt every ounce of passion and pain that you went through and I hope you never give up this fight! There are many of us who fight along beside you daily! Much love to you and all those around you!

I'm so sorry for your loss. I know loosing a child is one of the hardest things you will ever do in life. We all have different kinds of problems some physical and some mental. But, you do know she will always be by your side and watching over all of you. My condolences to you and your family and friends. I'm so so sorry for your loss.

*Whitney was always kind to me as a neighbor. When she would occasionally see me at a store, she would come over to me and speak. I saw a light in Whitney Marie Johnson Easley that shined with determination. She truly had a gift, one that touches human beings with compassion and care. As I was walking to my mailbox, I was thinking of Whitney and wondering how she was doing last Friday. Little did I know she was with GOD at that time. A beautiful soul indeed !!!
