“ Grannie was the sweetest human being and I will always cherish the amazing times my brother and I had running around in her house! Then always asking if there are any snacks in the pantry because I loved to eat! I loved her very much and I know the whole family cherished her presents! She will always be my guardian angel protecting me from above as I venture through life ❤️❤️❤️❤️
Sincerely, Your Grandson Josh

“ The Phillips Family were our neighbors, when I was born. And even though we moved away shortly afterwards, our two families have stayed friends for over 51 years. Wilma was always a gracious, wonderful lady! A true Southern Belle. I will always cherish my fond memories of her. Sending my love to Ginger, Lisa, Sherri and Mike.

“ When we were young and running in and out of Granny and Grandad's house it was a special treat if Aunt Wilma was at home. She was always so sweet and I thought she had the nicest smile. Until she married Uncle Gene she would give each of her siblings' families a plaid cloth wrapped box of caramels for Christmas. That was a super special treat!!

Since she was the youngest child, and the last to marry, her wedding was a special event. I was so excited when she showed me the napkins for her wedding.

It's odd the things we think of when asked to share memories. I know you will miss her but she will always be in your heart. I know she will be in mine.

Love to you all,

Jeannie Kendrick Rich
