“ Wilma was one of my very favorite people ever! She was funny, straightforward, intelligent, and an excellent woman to work with. My kitchen is filled with potholders and I can still taste her peanut brittle. She will be missed by all and I look forward to the day I see her in Heaven and can hug her neck! Well done, good and faithful servant of the Lord!! My prayers go out to Ken and the entire Tisdale family.

“ Wilma worked for me, I was under conviction and asked her some questions about God as I knew she was a believer, Wilma was the first person other than family I told I was saved the next day. Ken and Wilma hold a special place in my heart. so sorry to Ken and all the kids, they grew up with us at our church.

“ Dear family - Wilma had such a quiet, peaceful presence but you knew she loved BIG. She shared her talents as a blessing to others. We still have the chair throw that she crocheted as a wedding gift 43 years ago. Prayers for peace and comfort for each one as you celebrate her Heavenly homegoing and reflect on precious memories - Bill & Karen Lloyd
