“ Zane was a great guy, I remember going to church with him and looking up to him when we were both in youth group. For a short time he was even my youth group leader. We would play music occasionally together and that was always fun. Prayers to the family

“ Zane deeply loved his boys. Some of his happiest moments were spent coaching Greyson and Jason’s baseball teams, cheering them on from the field, and playing alongside them. He shared a special bond with Greyson, Jason, Emmett who loved his dad dearly and treasured every moment they had together.

Zane enjoyed being outdoors — whether he was taking the boys swimming, going on cruises, or simply spending time outside laughing and playing. Jason and Emmett especially loved their fishing and hunting trips with their dad, making memories they will always carry with them.

He was a wonderful father, full of love and pride for his children. His boys prayed every day for their dad to get better, holding onto hope that one day they’d be able to see him again.
